LIMESTONE DELEGATION INSTRUCTED; McADOO

Resolutions Adopted With No Opposition As Harmony And Peace Dominate Meet

Peace and harmony and good will generally characterized the meeting of Limestone County delegates to the Limestone County Democratic Convention at Groesbeck Tuesday.

The convention was called to order at 10:00 o'clock by County Chairman, Hon. E. A. Allen of Groesbeck. He at once stated the purpose of the convention and asked that a temporary Chairman and Secretary be appointed.

Mr. Seay of Groesbeck nominated George Perkins of Mexia for temporary chairman. George W. Black of Thornton then placed in nomination Lester Shepherd of Groesbeck. Mr. Perkins won by a large majority. Dr. R. B. Jackson placed in nomination for Secretary Fletcher Adair of Groesbeck who was unanimously elected by acclamation. Scott Reed moved that the temporary organization be made permanent, which was carried.

A motion was then made and carried specifying that the Chair should appoint a credentials committee of three. Jim Bradley was made chairman of this committee. Ed Allen moved that the chair also appoint a committee of five to draft resolutions to submit to the body. This was amended by a motion by Major N. P. Houx that the chair also appoint a committee of three on delegates to the Stae Convention.

The delegation committee was Joe Arrington, chairman, N. P. Houx and Scott Reed.

The chair instructed these committees to retire to various rooms of the court house and proceed with their duties.

The credentials committee found that 21 voting boxes were represented including all of the larger ones, with nine absent, seating the entire delegn-

Hughes, Chairman of the Board of Directors, states that they are working daily on the subject. He also states that the second installment of ten per cent on the subscripions is now due and that J. Sandford Smith is Treasurer authorized to receipt these payments. It will facilitate the work, the directors state, and will be appreciated if the subscribers to the stock will make their payments promptly. Miss Cora Oliphant, of the Chamber of Commerce offices, will likely call within the next few days on all who have not either mailed in their checks or tendered their payments to Mr. Smith.

LIMESTONE COUNTY RESOLUTIONS

Groesbeck, Limestone County, Texas.
May 6, 1924.

Hon. George W. Perkins, Chairman County Convention:

We, your committee on Resolutions, beg leave to submit the following:

We, the democrats of Limestone County, Texas, in convention assembled on this the Sixth day of May, 1924, do hereby renew our loyalty to the democratic party, and congratulate the country that no Bribe Takers and Sellers of Political Influence occupied high places in our government while the democratic party was in power.

We believe in clean, honest government, honestly administered; we believe in the virtue, validity and vitalizing power of our State and National prohibition laws; we commend and approve the action of our State and National legislative bodies in lifting woman out of her estate of bondage and placing her upon the highest pinnacle of American citizenship on a parity with our male population, and we invite them to cooperate with us in restoring our National government to the high plane of morals and honesty it occupied under democratic administration.

We express our full faith, confidence in and hearty support of Hon. Morris Sheppard and Hon. Earle B. Mayfield, the duly and lawfully elected United States Senators from Texas, and also send our cordial greetings to our own Congressional Representative, Hon. Luther Johnson, urging them to continue their good services in behalf of better government, free from the domination of special interests who know they cannot use them for their own personal gain.

Believing that William Gibbs McAdoo is the embodiment of progressive Democracy and believing further that he is a man of incorruptible integrity and broad enlightened statesmanship, both of which have been demonstrated by his eminent services to the Nation and knowing from his record and recent public utterances made face to face with the people of our State, that he is sound upon every vital issue and is in strict accord with the highest ideals of Texas Democracy and of the nation, we therefore instruct our delegates to the State convention to vote for resolutions and for delegates favoring his nomination as a Progressive Democrat for President of the United States.

We further instruct our delegates to vote for Alvin Ousley for Vice-President of the United States.

We further instruct our delegates to the State Convention to vote as a unit on all matters coming before that body, and to vote for resolutions and for delegates favorable to the nomination of William Gibbs McAdoo for President, Alvin Ousley for Vice-President, and also to stand with true Democratic courage for the enforcement of prohibition in the United States, sane immigration laws and for such other vital measures directed toward the protection of our homes and the perpetuity of our government.

We instruct our delegates to the State convention to endorse the Hon. J. E. Bradley of Limestone County as a delegate to the National convention from this Congressional district.

We point with pride to the result of instructed delegations heretofore made in this State, under which instructions, the nomination of Woodrow Wilson was named as the standard bearer of Democracy, and without which instructions our Nation may have lost the services of this eminent Statesman to whom we wish to give due honor at this first County Democratic Convention, following his demise.

McAdoo Carries Pivotal Counties In Conventions Over State Today

DALLAS, Texas, May 6.—Early returns from state wide county conventions today indicated that the McAdoo forces would control the State democratic convention at Waco May 27. McAdoo carried the pivotal counties, including Dallas, Harris, Johnson and Jefferson. Resolutions endorsing an unpledged delegation, supproted by Governor Neff, were adopted in the Travis county convention.

Charges that William Gibbs McAdoo is backed by the Klan in his campaign for the Texas forty delegates to the democratic national convention was denied today by Cato Sells, McAdoo's Texas manager. "It is an absurd bugaboo," replied Sells to accusations of Captain W. E. Lea, state manager for Senator Underwood. that the Klan put over McAdoo in Saturday's precinct primaries. County conventions were held throughout Texas today to elect delegates to the State convention of democrats and republicans May 27. McAdoo, by virtue of Saturday's primaries, is assured of the support of a majority of the county conventions

Early returns indicate his endorsement.

Johnson's supporters have waged a campaign against Coolidge, denouncing his attitude in the oil investigations.

DAWES PLAN IS FAVORED WHEN GERMANS GO TO POLLS

BERLIN, May 6.—The German people gave the Dawes-Young plan a narrow majority in the National elections.

Whatever the ensuing government and parliament may do, official results of Sunday's polling showed today that at least 15,000,000 of the 29,000,000 voters registered approval of the experts proposals.

The total vote of the Socialists, Democrats, Centrists and Folks Partei candidates—all of whom were pledged to support the plan—was more than half of the ballots cast.

Approximately 11,000,000 votes, those for Nationalists, Polkists and Communists, oppose the Dawes-Young report.

The remaining three million votes are either mildly for or against the plan.

The ratio of 15 to 1 under-estimates the success of the Moderates since May nationalists vote were merely protests against general conditions obtaining under the post war regime rather than shafts directed at the government's foreign policy.

Moreover, it must be remembered that the nationalists no longer are sharp opponents of the Dawes-Young plan—especially if they are given a hand in the government—for their leaders, at the close of the campaign, disavowed the Helfrich slogan, "a second Versailles," and let it be known they were willing to co-operate with the experts when the latter declared "we must deal with facts as they are."

In other words even the nationalists have admitted Germany cannot escape fulfillment of her treaty obligations.

Texas Institution Cares for Children

The Ministerial Alliance, at a call meeting Monday evening, May 5th, heard Mrs. R. P. McDonald present the claims and describe the work of the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society. This institution is discharging at present a noble work, and has served in like capacity for many years. In describing the work Mrs. McDonald explained that their purpose was to aid, assist ,care for, and place in temporary and permanent homes babies and small children that were uncared for by parents. Thousands of children and thousands o fhomes are made happy each year through their efforts.

Therefore the Ministerial Alliance deeming the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society a worthy and noble institution, heartily endorses the work of the same and recommends to the citizens of Mexia that they give this work, represented at this time by Mrs. McDonald, their financial support in so far as they are able.

Have you grown with Mexia, Mr. Citizen?

Have you kept pace with the advancement of your home community?

These questions are worth pondering over seriously. Mexia is the product of a healthy, steady, wonderful growth and advancement.

The growth in wealth and in health has been phenomenal. The advancement in civic improvements, its streets, churches, schools, residences, factories is such that there is just cause for exceeding pride.

There have been and are now greater opportunities for success here than are to be found in any other community of the population of Mexia in the Southwest. The opportunity to grow up with the place, to get in on the ground floor holds as good in Mexia as in any other thriving city, teeming with possibilities.

If your desire to grow up with the town is real, there will be the accomplishment.

If your desire to grow up with Mexia has been sincere and the effort expended sufficient, you have grown up with it.

The drifters have been content to permit the city to forge ahead of them. They have not had sufficient faith in their home to keep abreast and grow up with it. That opportunity is still theirs.

It may be late, but not too late to awaken to the possibilities which are so patient to those who have studied the field carefully.

Readjustment of thought and the creation of faith may be difficult, but true ambition to catch up and to keep up will assure the attainment.

One of the first qualifications necessary for growth with the city is the knowledge of its growth. It may grow all around you in many ways, invisible to you because you are not strictly a part of it. Becoming identical with the men and the agencies that are promoting and largely responsible for growth will give you the vision to see and appreciate developments made and likely to be.

The Chamber of Commerce of Mexia needs the unified support of every citizen. The address to be given on "The One-Mile Town" by Dr. Aubrey should not be missed by a man or woman interested in Mexia's growth. The Chamber of Commerce is needed today as much as it ever was and the Chamber of Commerce needs you.

Mexia is going to continue to grow and develop. You may, if you choose, grow with it. In just the proportion in which your aid is given in the advancement and development will the return be to the city and to you.

If dormant, the ambition in you should be awakened, if lacking, it should be created.. Self interest alone asks and community interest demands that you grow with the city and that the city grow with you.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

McADOO'S VICTORY IN TEXAS.

(The Houston Post.)

The sweeping victory of William Gibbs McAdoo in the precinct conventions of Texas Saturday presages a delegation from Texas instructed for him in the New York convention. It is scarcely likely that the State convention, controlled as it will be by McAdoo supporters, will fail to give instructions for him.

The defeat of the proposition of Governor Neff that the delegates go uninstructed as to candidates, but instructerl as to principles, may be interpreted in two ways. It may be made to appear as a direct slap at the governor, or else, it may be viewed as an expression from the McAdoo supporters that Mr. McAdoo fills the requirements that Governor Neff set out for the candidate, in respect to what principles he should represent, and also as to his possible strength in the convention.

In any event, the large majority of those who voted in the primaries and participated in the conventions in Texas Saturday repudiated the governor's position that McAdoo is not available as a candidate.

Another thing stands out clear in the returns. The reports of the association of Mr. McAdoo as attorney with interests which have been involved in controversy with the government, has made no appreciable impression upon the minds of those interested in the presidential nominee to express an opinion. There were those, probably, among his supporters, who thought he had acted injudiciously in accepting that legal employment. But evidently they were not disposed to challenge Mr. McAdoo's integrity, or to accept the allegation that he had been contaminated.

No doubt, Mr. McAdoo profited considerably by having the friendship and indorsement of many of the friends of the late Woodrow Wilson, in whose administration Mr. McAdoo served conspicuously. Likewise, he was undoubtedly the choice of the majority of the militant drys, who have not forgiven Senator Underwood for his stand against the Eighteenth amendment.

The understanding has been that the Klan in Texas was in favor of Mr. McAdoo, as it was in Georgia, and the election returns seem to bear out this belief.

Perhaps, the largest factor in the defeat of Senator Underwood is his record as an anti-prohibitionist before the amendment was adopted. As against the senator's latter day stand in favor of rigid enforcement of the Volstead act, his former opposition to the National amendment on the ground that it invaded the right of the States to regulate their affairs, appears to have had the greater weight with the Texas prohibitionists. With prohibitionists still viewing the Senator as a "wet," the McAdoo victory may be said to be a decisive victory in Texas for the drys.

It would be both foolish and unfair to say that the triumph of McAdoo in Texas does not materially enhance his chances for the nomination. If the forty votes of Texas are instructed for him, it will mean not only that many more votes to his credit but the added prestige, which the indorsement of the banner democratic State carries with it.

With the Texas delegation as the backbone of his support, and with Murphy missing from the directorship of the Smith candidacy, McAdoo will have reason to go into the convention with a considerable degree of confidence.

But anything may happen, before a two-thirds vote can be achieved. The very elements of strength that have sustained him in this section of the country, will be sources of weakness to him in some other sections, and it remains to be seen whether he can balance his points of strength and weakness sufficiently to prevent the necessity for the convention's choosing a compromise candidate.

Coolidge Favored For For Muscle Shoals Manager

WASHINGTON, May 6.—In this series of articles there was pointed out last December the curious sequence of events surrounding Mr. Ford's visit to the White House to confer with Mr Coolidge, his department with praise on his lips for the "great fan in the Presidency," shortly followed by his definite rejection of the idea of himself becoming a candidate, his flat-footed announcement for Coolidge and by the President's message to Congress urging that action be taken toward disposing of the Muscle Shoals Dam. While the President did not in so many words advise Congress to turn the dam over to Ford, he urged such action as would in all human probability result in that consummation.

There was at that time no proof of a dicker—merely a very suspicious concatenation of circumstances. The developments of the last few days add more cirmumstances and some real evidence, sufficient to draw a pretty accurate bead on what must have been an interesting event. The new evidence converts a strong suspicion into a stronger presumption.

Senator Norris has never been accused of being a Democrat; he never voted for a man in his life who could be so accused; he is a Republican of life-long habit. n investigating the question as to what should be done with Muscle Shoals, Senator Norris' Committee uncovered the fact that James Martin Miller had sent to the Editor of Ford's Dearborn Independent and to Ford's secretary a telegram of deep import and compelling interest. The telegram read as follows: "In private interview had with President Coolidge this morning he said incidentally: 'I am friendly to Mr. Ford, but wish someone would convey to him that it is my hope that Mr. Ford will not do or say anything that will make it difficult for me to deliver Muscle Shoals to him, which I am trying to do.'"

Senator Norris' Committee also learned from the carefully kept White House records of the President's engagements that Mr. Miller did have an interview with the President on the day the telegram was sent. Of course the President denies that he made such a statement to Miller. In a controversy involving veracity the White House is usually supposed to posess a great advantage, but if the whole people knew Mr. Miller as he has been known to hundreds of public men and journalists in Washington for a number of years, that advantage would disappear. No man enjoys the confidence of those who know him better than James Martin Miller, and he states in the most positive manner that he quoted the President word for word. Now comes the Ford headquarters with the statement that Mr. Miller was not on the Ford payroll, though it was stated in Washington six months ago that Miller was representating Ford here in certain delicate matters. The Ford offices also state that they receive hundreds of such telegrams daily and pay no attention to them. It is another curious circumstance that after the sending of that telegram Mr. Ford did not give out any more interviews assailing Secretary of War Weeks; it would appear that a word to the wise is still sufficient. It would also seem that when such telegrams begin to take up too much room a boy should be put onon the job of sorting them into white and yellow piles to be baled, even if not read.

What has become of that fine cohesive spirit the Republican party used to display in the old days when they could always talk and vote as one man whenever there was inviting spoils to be divided? No party was ever so shot to pieces, while the matters on which they have split are not of the cleanest and purest. For instance, that window-busting family row in Pennsylvania, where the old Penrose machine, (the same that voted the bartender's bulldog in an election some years ago and stole six millions on the building of one State capitol) under the leadership of Vare, joined with the Mellon crowd to carry the Coolidge delegates to victory over Governor Pinchot. tI was a knock-down-and-drag-out fight between the wets and the drys, Pinchot leading the drys and the wets making the fight for Coolidge delegates. Of course no one is surprised at finding Mellon on the wet side—he is understood to have gained much of his wealth through the operation of the Old Overholt distillery at Broad Brook, Pa. When it burned there was enough whiskey in it to furnish a moderate jag for two millions of men. A New York Congressman spoke to this writer the other day of the famous dinner of the Police Lieutenants Association in New York two or three years ago, which was held at The Commodore, a hotel commonly spoken of as a Mellon property. The newspaper men were barred from the dinner, but they evened the score by printing the tale broadcast the next morning of how under each table there was a basket filled with neat flasks of Old Overholt.

CHARACTERIZATION

Down through the centuries there have been noteworthy periods when reading the Bible seemed to be even more strongly essential to culture than any other recognized prose or poetry.

The present time is one of these. What causes the cycle to repeat itself is of no particular moment. Sufficient that it does, and deep thinkers find the reason easily traceable. The fact remains: Bible reading is essential.

So eminent an educator and critic as William Lyon Phelps has written an intensely interesting work on character delineation as he observes it in the Bible. The title of his volume, "Human Nature in the Bible," again places the Bible in the hands of men as a story of men.

It is not a book to be read merely by students, or by the clergy, or by laymen especially inclined. The Bible's interest is so varied, and its pictures of life so vividly drawn, that for the general reader its value as thrilling literature cannot be overestimated.

The third chapter of Genesis, for instance, contains a record of man's weakness and human frailty such as has never been equalled. The Book of Ruth is a story of adventure and a love tale of rare romantic appeal.

Every reader of this paper is eligible to ownership of this Book of Books. The distribution of Bibles is fully explained in a coupon printed elsewhere in this paper.

MEXIA SHRINERS PLAN CARAVAN TO WACO

A decision was reached by the Mexia Shrine Club at its pre-ceremonial banquet last Friday night to invade Waco on next Thursday with an automobile caravan and the Mexia Shriners and their ladies have been notified, as well as Shriners in neighboring towns that an automobile caravan will be formed on East Commerce street near the Masonic Temple, to leave Mexia promptly at ten o'clock Thursday morning, May 8th; all cars being suitably placarded on the windshield with a sticker advertising the Mexia Shrine Club Circus and other suitable banners will be draped on cars in the caravan to sufficiently advertise Mexia to the thousands of Shriners and spectators in Waco on the occasion of Karem Temples Spring Ceremonial. About one dozen novices from Mexia and as many from Teague will cross the hot sands at this ceremonial.

The caravan will be met by Karem Temples band at the entrance of Waco and headed in an automobile parade through the down town district to the Raleigh Hotel; headquarters of the Shriners.

This is just another feature in the Shrine program to boost Mexia and they generally leave an impression on the minds of those who witness their stunts and ceremonies on a pilgrimage of this nature.

All Shriners expecting to make the pilgrimage are requested to get in touch with Shrine Headquarters, Room 1 Farmers State Bank Building and get the necessary sticker for their car.

Mexia Shriners hit on the plan of an automobile caravan as something different from the last two special trains which they operated to Waco as they want a variety and don't want to grow stale on any particular thing.

Plenty of clean fun and lots of pep and boosting is a slogan of the local Shriners.

Hope Is Hope of Texas At Rodeo

HOUSTON, Texas, May 6.—Oscar F. Hope, of the Houston mounted police force and incidentally the world's champion bulldogger, will represent this city and his native state in the International rodeo to be held at Wembley Park, England, some 25 miles from London, on June 17 to 24. Hope has already left Houston for London where he will stay a short time before going to the rodeo and exposition grounds.

Embarking with Hope on his journey to annex international laurels will be his famous roping horse "Frank", one of the biggest factors in the many achievements won by the Houston "cowboy cop". The horse is intelligent, strong and fleet of foot, and Hope is ready to stack him against any other quadruped that will be entered in the international spectacle.

The rodeo is being promoted by Tex Auston, one of the foremost rodeo producers in the world and the prize money will mount into five figures. There will be entries from all sections of America, gauches from Argentina, vaqueros from Mexico, wranglers from Canada and Australia.

Hope is winner of many prizes at rodeos in Texas and the surrounding states. He will enter the calf-roping contest, the steer bulldogging event and the 100-yard swim on a horse over the Thames river. He has obtained a 90 day leave of absence from the Police Department.

Can't Mix Golf And Religion Is Bishop's Belief

ROANOKE, Va., (United Press.)—Golf and religion don't mix, and never will mix, even with the aid of "ecclesiastical caddies."

With this comment, Bishop Warren A. Candler, speaking at the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, deplored "the tendency of clergymen to forsake their studies for golf."

"The minister who spends more time playing golf than in his study is not a preacher," Bishop Candler declared.

"I suppose one reason why some preachers have an assistant to help them is because they want to get time to play golf. In order to do this they need ecclesiastical caddies."

SAM WERNER APPRECIATED BY MEXIA SHRINE CLUB

Many members of the Mexia Shrine Club have voiced their appreciation of the work of Noble Sam Werner in handling the publicity of the club. He is giving much time daily to the articles appearing in The News in the interest of the Shrine Club Circus, the ceremonial and other club activities.

The Shrine Circus is being well advertised by automobile owners who have allowed to be placed on their cars the flashing Shrine Circus Posters. In this way, the announcement of the event is being heralded all over Texas. A large crowd is expected from out of town on that gala occasion.

The Gushers broke up a tight pitching duel in the eighth on two passes and three singles off Clair, winning, 5 to 3. Bryan and McDowell featured with sensational catches in the outfield.

IMPROVED ROADS PICTURF TO BE SHOWN HERE NEXT WEEK

The story of what improved highways mean to any community, no matter how large or small, is graphically told in the motion picture "The Road to Happiness," to be presented at the Opera House next week.

Arrangements for the showing of this remarkable picture here were made by the Welch Motor Company and all who are interested in the promotion of better roads are urged to attend. Admission is free

"The Road to Happiness," was produced by the Ford Motion Picture Laboratory co-operating with government officials at Washington, and has the endorsement of the Bureau of Public Roads, U S Department of Commerce, the Highway Educational Board and the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

The picture has a distinct appeal from the fact that it tells a true-to-life story with scenes laid around a little town in Virginia and with the simple people of this community portraying the principal roles.

The story centers about young Bob Preston, farm boy who trudges over muddy roads to school and who endures the hardships attendant to transporting farm produce to market over all the impassable highways. He determines to devote his energies to awakening the community to the advantages of better roads. At school he hears of a national essay contest on good roads, enters it and captures the first prize, a four-year course at college From the hands of President Coolidge himself, Bob, in Washington, receives his certificate of scholarship which entitles him to his college course He takes up engineering, finishes school, enters work in the Bureau of Public Roads and finally, when the county commissioners in his old home community realize the need of better roads, he accepts their offer and becomes county engineer

ORIENT NEGOTIATIONS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 5.—Negotiations for the purchase of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad by the Rock Island were underway, today President James P. Gorman of the Rock Island was on a tour of inspection of the Orient lines with William T. Kemper, former receiver for the Orient.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND COMMENT

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Speeches delivered in the House against the administration of the packers and stockyards act have had wide circulation among farmers and have done a good deal of harm to Republican interests in the West. Following testimony by John M. Burns, an attorney of the Department of Agriculture, that officials of the packers and stock yards division had interpreted the law so as to "murder competition," Congressman Beck, a Republican, and Congressman Lozier, a Democrat attacked the Department of Agriculture in the House.

Speaking of the alleged dishonest practices of the livestock commission concerns which the packers and stockyards act was supposed to curb, Representative Beck charged that farmers were being defrauded in various ways without much interference from the officials of the Department of Agriculture. The men appointed to enforce the law, he said, were in many cases former employes of packers and commission firms against which it was directed

Certain commission men in St Paul, Congressman Beck declared, had been known to "short-change a farmer as much as $150 on a shipment of stock, or to underweight a car of stock 3,000 pounds, or to cripple two or three hogs in order to send them to a rendering plant where the packers were making over 700 per cent on their invested capital"

Congressman Lozier cited the case of a shipper who had consigned his sheep to a co-operative agency and could not get a satisfactory bid on the animals until finally he entrusted their sale to an 'old-time" firm Thereupon, Mr Lozier said, the packers offered the shipper $1.50 a hundredweight more than they had previously tendered him

Leading agricultural organizations and publications have given the same sort of information to farmers in all parts of the country Meantime, it is declared, the Department of Agriculture has been attempting to amend the present law so as to justify its interpretations and practice

President Coolidge's acknowledgment of defeat in his attempt to compel Congress to accept the "Mellon plan" is to be found in Senator Smoot's tactics to prevent the enactment of a Democratic tax law The Republicans were conceded to have a better opportunity to pass the Mellon plan in the Senate than they had in the House, but Senator Smoot has surrendered.

What the big interests which were backing the Mellon plan with paid propaganda and virtual intimidation will think of President Coolidge after this latest failure is a matter of speculation in Washington. This was to have been the principal achievement of the Coolidge administration and its chief claim to the support of the powerful groups which would have profited by a reduction of the surtaxes on incomes of millions. President Coolidge has been unable from the beginning to force the Republican majority in either branch of Congress to stand solidly for the Mellon plan. At last he is confronted with the unpleasant necessity of preventing tax revision at this session of Congress or approving what is practically a Democratic measure.

Prizes of $3,500 will be awarded the collegians who stage winning presentations.

Swapping Troops In National Guard

HOUSTON, Texas, May 6.—Announcement has been made of the "swapping" of two cavalry units of the state guards. Principals in the transaction were Houston and Brenham.

By the terms of the "deal" the 56th machine gun squadron of the general's cavalry brigade has been transferred from Houston to Brenham and in exchane Houston has taken Troop A, headquarters unit.

In announcing the exchange, General Jacobs F. Wolters, pointed out that it was more convenient to have the headquarters troop close at hand.

DRUGGIST SEES SNAKES

FORT WORTH, Texas, May 6.—R. B. Cameron, local druggist, literally saw snakes when he turned on the water faucet in the rear of his store.

A live snake, five inches long, slipped through the spigot into the sink when Cameron turned on the water.

With the aid of other druggists, Cameron captured the snake and put it in a bottle. It lived nine hours.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

Statistics of the large libraries show conclusively how great is the public taste for fiction. Fiction in the ordinary conception is a type of story writing which carries with it tales of human interest such as tragedy, adventure and love.

In the great Book of Isaiah chapter after chapter, and there are sixty-six of them, is replete with stirring accounts of devastation, adventure and strategy such as might have been carried in our daily newspapers in describing the late war.

This book may be read as fiction or as accurate records of authentic history according to individual belief.

Such chapter heads as the parable of the Ravaged Vineyard, Isaiah Sent to Encourage King Ahaz, Assyria to Overcome Israel, The Child Who Shall Reign as Prince, Universal Peace out of the Branch of Jesse, Babylon to Become Utterly Desolate, The Doom of Syria, Egypt to Fall by Civil War. These and many others are more satisfying and thrilling reading than many of today's best sellers.

The Red Letter Large Print Bible now being distrubted by this paper contains an endless amount of reading matter which if written as pure fiction by a contemporary author would bring the statistical records of general fiction to even larger figures.

Why does any one neglect to read such typical literature? See today's coupon for information as to how easy this beautifully printed and handsomely bound Bible can be called for at this office, or mailed to you.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Limestone County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the County of Limestone if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said Judicial District for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, B. D. Flickinger whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for Limestone County, at a regular term of the Justice's Court for Precinct No. 4 of said County, to be begun and holden at my office in Mexia on the 10th day of June, 1924, at ten o'clock A. M., to answer the complaint of Rogers Mercantile Company in a certain suit therein pending, in which Rogers Mercantile Company is Plaintiff, and B. D. Flickinger is Defendant.

Filed on the 26th day of April, A. D. 1924, and numbered on the Docket of said Court No. 739, the nature of the Plaintiff's demand being in substance as follows: On July 14th, 1923, at the instance and request of Defendant the Plaintiff took defendant's note in the sum of $44.50, due thirty days after date, said note providing for ten per cent attorney's fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. Plaintiff says further that he placed the note in the hands of Keys & Mason, attorneys, for collection, agreeing to pay them the ten per cent attorney's fees provided for in the note, the same being reasonable attorney's fees; that the note is now past due and unpaid, and that Defendant, though often requested, has hitherto failed and refused, and still refuses, to pay the same or any part thereof, to Plaintiff's damage in the principal sum of $44.50.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that the Defendant be cited to appear and answer this suit; that he have judgment in the principal sum of $44.50, interest, attorney's fees and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, general and special, in law and in equity, to which he may be justly entitled.

Herein fail not, but have then and there before said Court, at said regular term, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand, this 26th day of April, A. D., 1924.

Keechi Oil Test Creates Interest

Teague Chronicle

More and more interest is being manifested in the development of the mineral oil resources of Freestone county, which, if prevalent, are still in the potential stage, not to say uncertain or mysterious.

Recently there has been a sudden revival of activities in various sections of the country, which is reflected in the projection of several promising enterprises, which are now in the various stages of development.

The greatest interest in the county at the present time, perhaps, centers around recent showings of the Pickens No. 1 of the Keechi Petroleum Co., which is about two miles from the recently begun Edwards No. 1 of the L. A. Smith interests, on the Edwards ranch. The Pickens No. 1 is reported to be drilling in sandy brown lime containing black streaks at a depth estimated between 3800 and 3900 feet. The showing is indicated from the reported fact that oil actually drips from the bailer and tools as they come out of the hole. Scouts are drifting in, it is said, and strangers are beginning to visit the well.

The Knight No. 1 of the O-K Gas and Oil Co. seven miles southeast from Teague, was bailing to test out Wednesday, and ag ood showing was indicated.

The Edwards No. 1 of the L. A. Smith interests, 15 miles southeast of Teague on the Edwards ranch, which was spudded in last week is drilling around 1,000 feet.

It is reported that Mr. Everette, one of the trustees, will succeed Mr. Carpenter as field manager for the Thad McLain Co., drilling the Greene test four miles east of Teague, which was shut down recently. Plans of this company are not definitely known here.

Bobbed Hair Limits Divorce

PARIS (By Mail to United Press.)—The bobbed-hair fad among women is reducing the number of divorce actions, according to Attorney Delaney, a leading divorce lawyer here.

He said jealous wives no longer discover tell-tale strands on husband's coat, which removes one of the chief causes of suspicion.

He added that twenty years' experience had proved to him that half of women's suspicions arose over finding long hairs clinging to friend husband, but that during the past year he had not encountered one such case.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED WITHOUT DISSENTING VOTE WITH PEACE AND HARMONY PREVAILING

The resolutions committee's report was submitted at 12:15, having been out on the subject for about one hour and a half. The committee asked that all who had resolutions to present to present them through the committee for its consideration. While the committees were deliberating, the convention heard discussed vital problems of states, much interest being evident on questions of the hour. Among those from Mexia who delivered stirring addresses were Ben B. Hunt, Dr. R. B. Jackson, Owen F. Watkins, G. A. Walters and L. B. Altman. Other addresses were also delivered by many from other parts of the county. At any time there was a difference of opinion expressed, it was in good cheer neighbor to neighbor, and kept the convention in an attitude of party fraternity, which no doubt will be helpful in the coming campaign.

The report of the Resolutions committee was presented and the motion for its adoption was favored by a vast majority, not a dissenting vote being signalled when those opposed to the resolutions were asked to so vote.

The resolutions appear elsewhere in these columns.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's hero: Harry Heilman. The Detroit star outfielder, hit three singles and a double in four times up and helped beat the White Sox, 8 to 5.

Dinty Gearin let four balls loose in the seventh inning with the bases full and forced in the run that gave the Phils an 8 to 7 victory.

Jacobs walked Cavency in the ninth with the bases filled and the Reds gained a game on the Giants by beating the Cubs 3 to 2.

Babe Ruth's sixth homer in the first inning with two on bases helped the Yankees maul the athletics, 10 to 5.

Pounding three pitchers hard, the Red Sox beat the Senators 8 to 3.

Two homers by Jack Fournier and one by Zach Wheat, led the Brooklyn attack which downed the Braves 11 to 4.

The average of Mexia after winning the game yesterday now stands 583. The Gushers don't win all the games they play but notice that they stay pretty close to the top all along. Their climb to the top of the list from the lowest berth was a sensation in itself.

Marlin hasn't been coming up to the record predicted for them in preseason dope. However, they always managing to stop the winning streaks of other teams.

Clair and Hill spotted each other for easy meet Monday afternoon but Hill seems to have gotten the best of the Marlin moundsman.

Fowlkes changed his lineup somewhat Monday by drafting Butler from the outfield to hold down the second bag while he occupied first with Schieffer catching. From the showing it appears that he didn't weaken the outfield in doing so and materially strengthened his infield.

Six Mexia batters are credited with an aevrage of 300 and over in an unofficial report compiled recently. They are McDowell, Butler, Wren, Jones, Bryan, Geppert.

LIMESTONE DELEGATION INSTRUCTED; McADOO

Resolutions Adopted With No Opposition As Harmony And Peace Dominate Meet

Peace and harmony and good will generally characterized the meeting of Limestone County delegates to the Limestone County Democratic Convention at Groesbeck Tuesday.

The convention was called to order at 10:00 o'clock by County Chairman, Hon. E. A. Allen of Groesbeck. He at once stated the purpose of the convention and asked that a temporary Chairman and Secretary be appointed.

Mr. Seay of Groesbeck nominated George Perkins of Mexia for temporary chairman. George W. Black of Thornton then placed in nomination Lester Shepherd of Groesbeck. Mr. Perkins won by a large majority. Dr. R. B. Jackson placed in nomination for Secretary Fletcher Adair of Groesbeck who was unanimously elected by acclamation. Scott Reed moved that the temporary organization be made permanent, which was carried.

A motion was then made and carried specifying that the Chair should appoint a credentials committee of three. Jim Bradley was made chairman of this committee. Ed Allen moved that the chair also appoint a committee of five to draft resolutions to submit to the body. This was amended by a motion by Major N. P. Houx that the chair also appoint a committee of three on delegates to the Stae Convention.

The delegation committee was Joe Arrington, chairman, N. P. Houx and Scott Reed.

The chair instructed these committees to retire to various rooms of the court house and proceed with their duties.

The credentials committee found that 24 voting boxes were represented including all of the larger ones, with nine absent, seating the entire delega-

Sandford Smith is Treasurer authorized to receipt these payments. It will facilitate the work, the directors state, and will be appreciated if the subscribers to the stock will make their payments promptly. Miss Cora Oliphant, of the Chamber of Commerce offices, will likely call within the next few days on all who have not either mailed in their checks or tendered their payments to Mr. Smith.

Jewelers Seek Luxury Tax On Jewelry Banned

LIMESTONE COUNTY RESOLUTIONS

Groesbeck, Limestone County, Texas.
May 6, 1924.

Hon. George W. Perkins, Chairman County Convention:

We, your committee on Resolutions, beg leave to submit the following:

We, the democrats of Limestone County, Texas, in convention assembled on this the Sixth day of May, 1924, do hereby renew our loyalty to the democratic party, and congratulate the country that no Bribe Takers and Sellers of Political Influence occupied high places in our government while the democratic party was in power.

We believe in clean, honest government, honestly administered; we believe in the virtue, validity and vitalizing power of our State and National prohibition laws; we commend and approve the action of our State and National legislative bodies in lifting woman out of her estate of bondage and placing her upon the highest pinnacle of American citizenship on a parity with our male population, and we invite them to cooperate with us in restoring our National government to the high plane of morals and honesty it occupied under democratic administration.

We express our full faith, confidence in and hearty support of Hon. Morris Sheppard and Hon. Earle B. Mayfield, the duly and lawfully elected United States Senators from Texas, and also send our cordial greetings to our own Congressional Representative, Hon. Luther Johnson, urging them to continue their good services in behalf of better government, free from the domination of special interests who know they cannot use them for their own personal gain.

Believing that William Gibbs McAdoo is the embodiment of progressive Democracy and believing further that he is a man of incorruptible integrity and broad enlightened statesmanship, both of which have been demonstrated by his eminent services to the Nation and knowing from his record and recent public utterances made face to face with the people of our State, that he is sound upon every vital issue and is in strict accord with the highest ideals of Texas Democracy and of the nation, we therefore instruct our delegates to the State convention to vote for resolutions and for delegates favoring his nomination as a Progressive Democrat for President of the United States.

We further instruct our delegates to vote for Alvin Ousley for Vice-President of the United States.

We further instruct our delegates to the State Convention to vote as a unit on all matters coming before that body, and to vote for resolutions and for delegates favorable to the nomination of William Gibbs McAdoo for President, Alvin Ousley for Vice-President, and also to stand with true Democratic courage for the enforcement of prohibition in the United States, sane immigration laws and for such other vital measures directed toward the protection of our homes and the perpetuity of our government.

We instruct our delegates to the State convention to endorse the Hon. J. E. Bradley of Limestone County as a delegate to the National convention from this Congressional district.

We point with pride to the result of instructed delegations heretofore made in this State, under which instructions, the nomination of Woodrow Wilson was named as the standard bearer of Democracy, and without which instructions our Nation may have lost the services of this eminent Statesman to whom we wish to give due honor at this first County Democratic Convention, following his demise.

McAdoo Carries Pivotal Counties In Conventions Over State Today

DALLAS, Texas, May 6.—Early returns from state wide county conventions today indicated that the McAdoo forces would control the State democratic convention at Waco May 27. McAdoo carried the pivotal counties, including Dallas, Harris, Johnson and Jefferson. Resolutions endorsing an unpledged delegation, supproted by Governor Neff, were adopted in the Travis county convention.

Charges that William Gibbs McAdoo is backed by the Klan in his campaign for the Texas forty delegates to the democratic national convention was denied today by Cato Sells, McAdoo's Texas manager. "It is an absurd bugaboo," replied Sells to accusations of Captain W. E. Lea, state manager for Senator Underwood. that the Klan put over McAdoo in Saturday's precinct primaries. County conventions were hold throughout Texas today to elect delegates to the State convention of democrats and republicans May 27. McAdoo, by virtue of Saturday's primaries, is assured of the support of a majority of the county conventions.

Early returns indicate his endorsement.

No Irregularities In Pardon States Chicago Attorney

Johnson Clashes With Coolidge In California

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Hiram Johnson and President Coolidge clashed in California's primaries today for control of the California delegates to the national republican convention. Johnson is making his last stand for a firmly pledged support from his home state, and for a voice in the national convention. Johnson's supporters have waged a campaign against Coolidge, denouncing his attitude in the oil investigations.

Nitro Explosion Probably Kills Many Employes

FRANKLIN, Pa., May 6.—An explosion of nitroglycerine wrecked the Peace magazine at Bayard's Ferry near here today. First reports reaching here were that several men working in the magazine were caught in the explosion and probably killed. The shock from the blast was felt over a radius of twenty miles.

Hoof Trouble Is Now under Control

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Evidence that the California hoof and mouth disease epidemic is coming under control is contained in today's developments in infected areas. Pacific coast highways from San Francisco to Los Angeles opened for all traffic. Fishing is permitted in all counties except those under rigid quaraintine. No major infections are reported and minor cases were discovered only within the infected districts. Arizona and Texas named delegations to visit California and investigate conditions.

Mrs. Betty Fritz Dies Sunday Night

Mrs. Betty Fritz, about 21, died of inflamation of the brain at the home of Will Cox Waller on South McKinney street about 12 o'clock Sunday night. The deceased had been in Mexia about 6 months prior to her death.

DAWES PLAN IS FAVORED WHEN GERMANS GO TO POLLS

BERLIN, May 6.—The German people gave the Dawes-Young plan a narrow majority in the National elections.

Whatever the ensuing government and parliament may do, official results of Sunday's polling showed today that at least 15,000,000 of the 29,000,000 voters registered approval of the experts proposals.

The total vote of the Socialists, Demcorats, Centrists and Folks Partei candidates—all of whom were pledged to support the plan—was more than half of the ballots cast.

Approximately 11,000,000 votes, those for Nationalists, Polirists and Communists, oppose the Dawes-Young report.

The remaining three million votes are either mildly for or against the plan.

The ratio of 15 to 1 under-estimates the success of the Moderates since May nationalists vote were merely protests against general conditions obtaining under the post war regime rather than shafts directed at the government's foreign policy.

Moreover, it must be remembered that the nationalists no longer are sharp opponents of the Dawes-Young plan—especially if they are given a hand in the government—for their leaders, at the close of the campaign, disavowed the Helfrich slogan, "a second Versailles," and let it be known they were willing to co-operate with the experts when the latter declared "we must deal with facts as they are."

In other words even the nationalists have admitted Germany cannot escape fulfillment of her treaty obligations.

Texas Institution Cares for Children

The Ministerial Alliance, at a call meeting Monday evening, May 5th, heard Mrs. R. P. McDonald present the claims and describe the work of the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society. This institution is discharging at present a noble work, and has served in like capacity for many years. In describing the work Mrs. McDonald explained that their purpose was to aid, assist ,care for, and place in temporary and permanent homes babies and small children that were uncared for by parents. Thousands of children and thousands o fhomes are made happy each year through their efforts.

Therefore the Ministerial Alliance deeming the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society a worthy and noble institution, heartily endorses the work of the same and recommends to the citizens of Mexia that they give this work, represented at this time by Mrs. McDonald, their financial support in so far as they are able.

Have you grown with Mexia, Mr. Citizen?

Have you kept pace with the advancement of your home community?

These questions are worth pondering over seriously. Mexia is the product of a healthy, steady, wonderful growth and advancement.

The growth in wealth and in health has been phenomenal. The advancement in civic improvements, its streets, churches, schools, residences, factories is such that there is just cause for exceeding pride.

There have been and are now greater opportunities for success here than are to be found in any other community of the population of Mexia in the Southwest. The opportunity to grow up with the place, to get in on the ground floor holds as good in Mexia as in any other thriving city, teeming with possibilities.

If your desire to grow up with the town is real, there will be the accomplishment.

If your desire to grow up with Mexia has been sincere and the effort expended sufficient, you have grown up with it.

The drifters have been content to permit the city to forge ahead of them. They have not had sufficient faith in their home to keep abreast and grow up with it. That opportunity is still theirs.

It may be late, but not too late to awaken to the possibilities which are so patient to those who have studied the field carefully.

Readjustment of thought and the creation of faith may be difficult, but true ambition to catch up and to keep up will assure the attainment.

One of the first qualifications necessary for growth with the city is the knowledge of its growth. It may grow all around you in many ways, invisible to you because you are not strictly a part of it. Becoming identical with the men and the agencies that are promoting and largely responsible for growth will give you the vision to see and appreciate developments made and likely to be.

The Chamber of Commerce of Mexia needs the unified support of every citizen. The address to be given on "The One-Mile Town" by Dr. Aubrey should not be missed by a man or woman interested in Mexia's growth. The Chamber of Commerce is needed today as much as it ever was and the Chamber of Commerce needs you.

Mexia is going to continue to grow and develop. You may, if you choose, grow with it. In just the proportion in which your aid is given in the advancement and development will the return be to the city and to you.

If dormant, the ambition in you should be awakened, if lacking, it should be created.. Self interest alone asks and community interest demands that you grow with the city and that the city grow with you.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

McADOO'S VICTORY IN TEXAS.

(The Houston Post.)

The sweeping victory of William Gibbs McAdoo in the precinct conventions of Texas Saturday presages a delegation from Texas instructed for him in the New York convention. It is scarcely likely that the State convention, controlled as it will be by McAdoo supporters, will fail to give instructions for him.

The defeat of the proposition of Governor Neff that the delegates go uninstructed as to candidates, but instructed as to principles, may be interpreted in two ways. It may be made to appear as a direct slap at the governor, or else, it may be viewed as an expression from the McAdoo supporters that Mr. McAdoo fills the requirements that Governor Neff set out for the candidate, in respect to what principles he should represent, and also as to his possible strength in the convention.

In any event, the large majority of those who voted in the primaries and participated in the conventions in Texas Saturday repudiated the governor's position that McAdoo is not available as a candidate.

Another thing stands out clear in the returns. The reports of the association of Mr. McAdoo as attorney with interests which have been involved in controversy with the government, has made no appreciable impression upon the minds of those interested in the presidential nominee to express an opinion. There were those, probably, among his supporters, who thought he had acted injudiciously in accepting that legal employment, but evidently they were not disposed to challenge Mr. McAdoo's integrity, or to accept the allegation that he had been contaminated.

No doubt, Mr. McAdoo profited considerably by having the friendship and indorsement of many of the friends of the late Woodrow Wilson, in whose administration Mr. McAdoo served conspicuously. Likewise, he was undoubtedly the choice of the majority of the militant drys, who have not forgiven Senator Underwood for his stand against the Eighteenth amendment.

The understanding has been that the Klan in Texas was in favor of Mr. McAdoo, as it was in Georgia, and the election returns seem to bear out this belief.

Perhaps, the largest factor in the defeat of Senator Underwood is his record as an anti-prohibitionist before the amendment was adopted. As against the senator's latter day stand in favor of rigid enforcement of the Volstead act, his former opposition to the National amendment on the ground that it invaded the right of the States to regulate their affairs, appears to have had the greater weight with the Texas prohibitionists. With prohibitionists still viewing the Senator as a "wet," the McAdoo victory may be said to be a decisive victory in Texas for the drys.

It would be both foolish and unfair to say that the triumph of McAdoo in Texas does not materially enhance his chances for the nomination. If the forty votes of Texas are instructed for him, it will mean not only that many more votes to his credit but the added prestige, which the indorsement of the banner democratic State carries with it.

With the Texas delegation as the backbone of his support, and with Murphy missing from the directorship of the Smith candidacy, McAdoo will have reason to go into the convention with a considerable degree of confidence.

But anything may happen, before a two-thirds vote can be achieved. The very elements of strength that have sustained him in this section of the country, will be sources of weakness to him in some other sections, and it remains to be seen whether he can balance his points of strength and weakness sufficiently to prevent the necessity for the convention's choosing a compromise candidate.

Coolidge Favored For For Muscle Shoals Manager

WASHINGTON, May 6.—In this series of articles there was pointed out last December the curious sequence of events surrounding Mr. Ford's visit to the White House to confer with Mr. Coolidge, his department with praise on his lips for the "great fan in the Presidency," shortly followed by his definite rejection of the idea of himself becoming a candidate, his flat-footed announcement for Coolidge and by the President's message to Congress urging that action be taken toward disposing of the Muscle Shoals Dam. While the President did not in so many words advise Congress to turn the dam over to Ford, he urged such action as would in all human probability result in that consummation.

There was at that time no proof of a dicker—merely a very suspicious concatenation of circumstances. The developments of the last few days add more circumstances and some real evidence, sufficient to draw a pretty accurate bead on what must have been an interesting event. The new evidence converts a strong suspicion into a stronger presumption.

Senator Norris has never been accused of being a Democrat; he never voted for a man in his life who could be so accused; he is a Republican of life-long habit. n investigating the question as to what should be done with Muscle Shoals, Senator Norris' Committee uncovered the fact that James Martin Miller had sent to the Editor of Ford's Dearborn Independent and to Ford's secretary a telegram of deep import and compelling interest. The telegram read as follows: "In private interview had with President Coolidge this morning he said incidentally: 'I am friendly to Mr. Ford, but wish someone would convey to him that it is my hope that Mr. Ford will not do or say anything that will make it difficult for me to deliver Muscle Shoals to him, which I am trying to do.'"

Senator Norris' Committee also learned from the carefully kept White House records of the President's engagements that Mr. Miller did have an interview with the President on the day the telegram was sent. Of course the President denies that he made such a statement to Miller. In a controversy involving veracity the White House is usually supposed to posess a great advantage, but if the whole people knew Mr. Miller as he has been known to hundreds of public men and journalists in Washington for a number of years, that advantage would disappear. No man enjoys the confidence of those who know him better than James Martin Miller, and he states in the most positive manner that he quoted the President word for word. Now comes the Ford headquarters with the statement that Mr. Miller was not on the Ford payroll, though it was stated in Washington six months ago that Miller was representating Ford here in certain delicate matters. The Ford offices also state that they receive hundreds of such telegrams daily and pay no attention to them. It is another curious circumstance that after the sending of that telegram Mr. Ford did not give out any more interviews assailing Secretary of War Weeks; it would appear that a word to the wise is still sufficient. It would also seem that when such telegrams begin to take up too much room a boy should be put onon the job of sorting them into white and yellow piles to be baled, even if not read.

What has become of that fine cohesive spirit the Republican party used to display in the old days when they could always talk and vote as one man whenever there was inviting spoils to be divided? No party was ever so shot to pieces, while the matters on which they have split are not of the cleanest and purest. For instance, that window-busting family row in Pennsylvania, where the old Penrose machine, (the same that voted the bartender's bulldog in an election some years ago and stole six millions on the building of one State capitol) under the leadership of Vare, joined with the Mellon crowd to carry the Coolidge delegates to victory over Governor Pinchot. tI was a knock-down-and-drag-out fight between the wets and the drys, Pinchot leading the drys and the wets making the fight for Coolidge delegates. Of course no one is surprised at finding Mellon on the wet side—he is understood to have gained much of his wealth through the operation of the Old Overholt distillery at Broad Brook, Pa. When it burned there was enough whiskey in it to furnish a moderate jag for two millions of men. A New York Congressman spoke to this writer the other day of the famous dinner of the Police Lieutenants Association in New York two or three years ago, which was held at The Commodore, a hotel commonly spoken of as a Mellon property. The newspaper men were barred from the dinner, but they evened the score by printing the tale broadcast the next morning of how under each table there was a basket filled with neat flasks of Old Overholt.

CHARACTERIZATION

Down through the centuries there have been noteworthy periods when reading the Bible seemed to be even more strongly essential to culture than any other recognized prose or poetry.

The present time is one of these. What causes the cycle to repeat itself is of no particular moment. Sufficient that it does, and deep thinkers find the reason easily traceable. The fact remains: Bible reading is essential.

So eminent an educator and critic as William Lyon Phelps has written an intensely interesting work on character delineation as he observes it in the Bible. The title of his volume, "Human Nature in the Bible," again places the Bible in the hands of men as a story of men.

It is not a book to be read merely by students, or by the clergy, or by laymen especially inclined. The Bible's interest is so varied, and its pictures of life so vividly drawn, that for the general reader its value as thrilling literature cannot be overestimated.

The third chapter of Genesis, for instance, contains a record of man's weakness and human frailty such as has never been equalled. The Book of Ruth is a story of adventure and a love tale of rare romantic appeal.

Every reader of this paper is eligible to ownership of this Book of Books. The distribution of Bibles is fully explained in a coupon printed elsewhere in this paper.

MEXIA SHRINERS PLAN CARAVAN TO WACO

A decision was reached by the Mexia Shrine Club at its pre-ceremonial banquet last Friday night to invade Waco on next Thursday with an automobile caravan and the Mexia Shriners and their ladies have been notified, as well as Shriners in neighboring towns that an automobile caravan will be formed on East Commerce street near the Masonic Temple, to leave Mexia promptly at ten o'clock Thursday morning, May 8th; all cars being suitably placarded on the windshield with a sticker advertising the Mexia Shrine Club Circus and other suitable banners will be draped on cars in the caravan to sufficiently advertise Mexia to the thousands of Shriners and spectators in Waco on the occasion of Karem Temples Spring Ceremonial. About one dozen novices from Mexia and as many from Teague will cross the hot sands at this ceremonial.

The caravan will be met by Karem Temples band at the entrance of Waco and headed in an automobile parade through the down town district to the Raleigh Hotel; headquarters of the Shriners.

This is just another feature in the Shrine program to boost Mexia and they generally leave an impression on the minds of those who witness their stunts and ceremonies on a pilgrimage of this nature.

All Shriners expecting to make the pilgrimage are requested to get in touch with Shrine Headquarters, Room 1 Farmers State Bank Building and get the necessary sticker for their car.

Mexia Shriners hit on the plan of an automobile caravan as something different from the last two special trains which they operated to Waco as they want a variety and don't want to grow stale on any particular thing.

Plenty of clean fun and lots of pep and boosting is a slogan of the local Shriners.

Hope Is Hope of Texas At Rodeo

HOUSTON, Texas, May 6.—Oscar F. Hope, of the Houston mounted police force and incidentally the world's champion bulldogger, will represent this city and his native state in the International rodeo to be held at Wembley Park, England, some 25 miles from London, on June 17 to 24. Hope has already left Houston for London where he will stay a short time before going to the rodeo and exposition grounds.

The rodeo is being promoted by Tex Auston, one of the foremost rodeo producers in the world and the prize money will mount into five figures. There will be entries from all sections of America, gauches from Argentina, vaqueros from Mexico, wranglers from Canada and Australia.

Hope is winner of many prizes at rodeos in Texas and the surrounding states. He will enter the calf-roping contest, the steer bulldogging event and the 100-yard swim on a horse over the Thames river. He has obtained a 90 day leave of absence from the Police Department.

ROANOKE, Va., (United Press.)—Golf and religion don't mix, and never will mix, even with the aid of "ecclesiastical caddies."

With this comment, Bishop Warren A. Candler, speaking at the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, deplored "the tendency of clergymen to forsake their studies for golf."

"The minister who spends more time playing golf than in his study is not a preacher," Bishop Candler declared.

"I suppose one reason why some preachers have an assistant to help them is because they want to get time to play golf. In order to do this they need ecclesiastical caddies."

SAM WERNER APPRECIATED BY MEXIA SHRINE CLUB

Many members of the Mexia Shrine Club have voiced their appreciation of the work of Noble Sam Werner in handling the publicity of the club. He is giving much time daily to the articles appearing in The News in the interest of the Shrine Club Circus, the ceremonial and other club activities.

The Shrine Circus is being well advertised by automobile owners who have allowed to be placed on their cars the flashing Shrine Circus Posters. In this way, the announcement of the event is being heralded all over Texas. A large crowd is expected from out of town on that gala occasion.

The Gushers broke up a tight pitching duel in the eighth on two passes and three singles off Clair, winning, 5 to 3. Bryan and McDowell featured with sensational catches in the outfield.

IMPROVED ROADS PICTURE TO BE SHOWN HERE NEXT WEEK

The story of what improved highways mean to any community, no matter how large or small, is graphically told in the motion picture "The Road to Happiness," to be presented at the Opera House next week.

Arrangements for the showing of this remarkable picture here were made by the Welch Motor Company and all who are interested in the promotion of better roads are urged to attend. Admission is free.

"The Road to Happiness," was produced by the Ford Motion Picture Laboratory co-operating with government officials at Washington, and has the endorsement of the Bureau of Public Roads, U. S. Department of Commerce, the Highway Educational Board and the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

The picture has a distinct appeal from the fact that it tells a true-to-life story, with scenes laid around a little town in Virginia and with the simple people of this community portraying the principal roles.

The story centers about young Bob Preston, farm boy who trudges over muddy roads to school and who endures the hardships attendant to transporting farm produce to market over all the impassable highways. He determines to devote his energies to awakening the community to the advantages of better roads. At school he learns of a national essay contest on good roads, enters it and captures the first prize, a four-year course at college. From the hands of President Coolidge himself, Bob, in Washington, receives his certificate of scholarship which entitles him to his college course. He takes up engineering, finishes school, enters work in the Bureau of Public Roads and finally, when the county commissioners in his old home community realize the need of better roads, he accepts their offer and becomes county engineer.

ORIENT NEGOTIATIONS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 5.—Negotiations for the purchase of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad by the Rock Island were underway today. President James P. Gorman, of the Rock Island was on a tour of inspection of the Orient lines with William T. Kemper, former receiver for the Orient.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND COMMENT

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Speeches delivered in the House against the administration of the packers and stockyards act have had wide circulation among farmers and have done a good deal of harm to Republican interests in the West. Following testimony by John M. Burns, an attorney of the Department of Agriculture, that officials of the packers and stock yards division had interpreted the law so as to "murder competition," Congressman Beck, a Republican, and Congressman Lozier, a Democrat, attacked the Department of Agriculture in the House.

Speaking of the alleged dishonest practices of the livestock commission concerns which the packers and stockyards act was supposed to curb, Representative Beck charged that farmers were being defrauded in various ways without much interference from the officials of the Department of Agriculture. The men appointed to enforce the law, he said, were in many cases former employes of packers and commission firms against which it was directed.

Certain commission men in St. Paul, Congressman Beck declared, had been known to "short-change a farmer as much as $450 on a shipment of stock, or to underweight a car of stock 3,000 pounds, or to cripple two or three hogs in order to send them to a rendering plant where the packers were making over 700 per cent on their invested capital."

Congressman Lozier cited the case of a shipper who had consigned his sheep to a co-operative agency and could not get a satisfactory bid on the animals until finally he entrusted their sale to an "old-time" firm. Thereupon, Mr. Lozier said, the packers offered the shipper $1.50 a hundredweight more than they had previously tendered him.

Leading agricultural organizations and publications have given the same sort of information to farmers in all parts of the country. Meantime, it is declared, the Department of Agriculture has been attempting to amend the present law so as to justify its interpretations and practices.

President Coolidge's acknowledgment of defeat in his attempt to compel Congress to accept the "Mellon plan" is to be found in Senator Smoot's tactics to prevent the enactment of a Democratic tax law. The Republicans were conceded to have a better opportunity to pass the Mellon plan in the Senate than they had in the House, but Senator Smoot has surrendered.

What the big interests which were backing the Mellon plan with paid propaganda and virtual intimidation will think of President Coolidge after this latest failure is a matter of speculation in Washington. This was to have been the principal achievement of the Coolidge administration and its chief claim to the support of the powerful groups which would have profited by a reduction of the surtaxes on incomes of millions. President Coolidge has been unable from the beginning to force the Republican majority in either branch of Congress to stand solidly for the Mellon plan. At last he is confronted with the unpleasant necessity of preventing tax revision at this session of Congress or approving what is practically a Democratic measure.

Swapping Troops In National Guard

HOUSTON, Texas, May 6.—Announcement has been made of the "swapping" of two cavalry units of the state guards. Principals in the transaction were Houston and Brenham.

By the terms of the "deal" the 56th machine gun squadron of the general's cavalry brigade has been transferred from Houston to Brenham and in exchane Houston has taken Troop A, headquarters unit.

In announcing the exchange, General Jacobs F. Wolters, pointed out that it was more convenient to have the headquarters troop close at hand.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

Statistics of the large libraries show conclusively how great is the public taste for fiction. Fiction in the ordinary conception is a type of story writing which carries with it tales of human interest such as tragedy, adventure and love.

In the great Book of Isaiah chapter after chapter, and there are sixty-six of them, is replete with stirring accounts of devastation, adventure and strategy such as might have been carried in our daily newspapers in describing the late war.

This book may be read as fiction or as accurate records of authentic history according to individual belief.

Such chapter heads as the parable of the Ravaged Vineyard, Isaiah Sent to Encourage King Ahaz, Assyria to Overcome Israel, The Child Who Shall Reign as Prince, Universal Peace out of the Branch of Jesse, Babylon to Become Utterly Desolate, The Doom of Syria, Egypt to Fall by Civil War. These and many others are more satisfying and thrilling reading than many of today's best sellers.

The Red Letter Large Print Bible now being distrubted by this paper contains an endless amount of reading matter which if written as pure fiction by a comtemporary author would bring the statistical records of general fiction to even larger figures.

Why does any one neglect to read such typical literature? See today's coupon for information as to how easy this beautifully printed and handsomely bound Bible can be called for at this office, or mailed to you.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Limestone County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the County of Limestone if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said Judicial District for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, B. D. Flickinger whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for Limestone County, at a regular term of the Justice's Court for Precinct No. 4 of said County, to be begun and holden at my office in Mexia on the 10th day of June, 1924, at ten o'clock A. M., to answer the complaint of Rogers Mercantile Company in a certain suit therein pending, in which Rogers Mercantile Company is Plaintiff, and B. D. Flickinger is Defendant.

Filed on the 26th day of April, A. D. 1924, and numbered on the Docket of said Court No. 739, the nature of the Plaintiff's demand being in substance as follows: On July 14th, 1923, at the instance and request of Defendant the Plaintiff took defendant's note in the sum of $44.50, due thirty days after date, said note providing for ten per cent attorney's fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. Plaintiff says further that he placed the note in the hands of Keys & Mason, attorneys, for collection, agreeing to pay them the ten per cent attorney's fees provided for in the note, the same being reasonable attorney's fees; that the note is now past due and unpaid, and that Defendant, though often requested, has hitherto failed and refused, and still refuses, to pay the same or any part thereof, to Plaintiff's damage in the principal sum of $44.50.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that the Defendant be cited to appear and answer this suit; that he have judgment in the principal sum of $44.50, interest, attorney's fees and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, general and special, in law and in equity, to which he may be justly entitled.

Herein fail not, but have then and there before said Court, at said regular term, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand, this 26th day of April, A. D., 1924.

Keechi Oil Test Creates Interest

Teague Chronicle

More and more interest is being manifested in the development of the mineral oil resources of Freestone county, which, if prevalent, are still in the potential stage, not to say uncertain or mysterious.

Recently there has been a sudden revival of activities in various sections of the country, which is reflected in the projection of several promising enterprises, which are now in the various stages of development.

The greatest interest in the county at the present time, perhaps, centers around recent showings of the Pickens No. 1 of the Keechi Petroleum Co., which is about two miles from the recently begun Edwards No. 1 of the L. A. Smith interests, on the Edwards ranch. The Pickens No. 1 is reported to be drilling in sandy brown lime containing black streaks at a depth estimated between 3800 and 3900 feet. The showing is indicated from the reported fact that oil actually drips from the bailer and tools as they come out of the hole. Scouts are drifting in, it is said, and strangers are beginning to visit the well.

The Knight No. 1 of the O-K Gas and Oil Co. seven miles southeast from Teague, was bailing to test out Wednesday, and ag ood showing was indicated.

The Edwards No. 1 of the L. A. Smith interests, 15 miles southeast of Teague on the Edwards ranch, which was spudded in last week, is drilling around 1,000 feet.

It is reported that Mr. Everette, one of the trustees, will succeed Mr. Carpenter as field manager for the Thad McLain Co., drilling the Greene test four miles east of Teague, which was shut down recently. Plans of this company are not definitely known here.

It is reported that a block of Turlington southeast from Fairfield.

Bobbed Hair Limits Divorce

PARIS (By Mail to United Press.)—The bobbed-hair fad among women is reducing the number of divorce actions, according to Attorney Delaney, a leading divorce lawyer here.

He said jealous wives no longer discover tell-tale strands on husband's coat, which removes one of the chief causes of suspicion.

He added that twenty years' experience had proved to him that half of women's suspicions arose over finding long hairs clinging to friend husband, but that during the past year he had not encountered one such case.

The resolutions committee's report was submitted at 12:15, having been out on the subject for about one hour and a half. The committee asked that all who had resolutions to present to present them through the committee for its consideration. While the committees were deliberaing, the convention heard discussed vital problems of states, much interest being evident on questions of the hour. Among those from Mexia who delivered stirring addresses were Ben B. Hunt, Dr. R. B. Jackson, Owen F. Watkins, G. A. Walters and L. B. Altman. Other addresses were also delivered by many from other parts of the county. At any time there was a difference of opinion expressed, it was in good cheer neighbor to neighbor, and kept the convention in an attitude of party fraternity, which no doubt will be help ful in the coming campaign.

The report of the Resolutions committee was presented and the motion for its adoption was favored by a vast majority, not a dissenting vote being signalled when those opposed to the resolutions were asked to so vote.

The resolutions appear elsewhere in these columns.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's hero: Harry Heilman. The Detroit star outfielder, hit three singles and a double in four times up and helped beat the White Sox, 8 to 5.

Dinty Gearin let four balls loose in the seventh inning with the bases full and forced in the run that gave the Phils an 8 to 7 victory.

Jacobs walked Caveney in the ninth with the bases filled and the Reds gained a game on the Giants by beating the Cubs 3 to 2.

Babe Ruth's sixth homer in the first inning with two on bases helped the Yankees maul the athletics, 10 to 5.

Pounding three pitchers hard, the Red Sox beat the Senators 8 to 3.

Two homers by Jack Fournier and one by Zach Wheat, led the Brooklyn attack which downed the Braves 11 to 4.

The average of Mexia after winning the game yesterday now stands 583. The Gushers don't win all the games they play but notice that they stay pretty close to the top all along. Their climb to the top of the list from the lowest berth was a sensation in itself.

Marlin hasn't been coming up to the record predicted for them in preseason dope. However, they always managing to stop the winning streaks of other teams.

Clair and Hill spotted each other for easy meet Monday afternoon but Hill seems to have gotten the best of the Marlin moundsman.

Fowlkes changed his lineup somewhat Monday by drafting Butler from the outfield to hold down the second bag while he occupied first with Schieffer catching. From the showing it appears that he didn't weaken the outfield in doing so and materially strengthened his infield.

Six Mexia batters are credited with an aevrage of 300 and over in an unofficial report compiled recently. They are McDowell, Butler, Wren, Jones, Bryan, Geppert.
